

GFWC LEADS

Leadership Education and Development Seminar

Objective: To identify GFWC members who have the potential to assume leadership positions beyond the club level and provide them with skills, confidence and commitment to become future Federation leaders.

Leadership is the key to building membership, preserving organizational continuity, enhancing image and identity and maintaining sound fiscal policies. The GFWC Leadership Education and Development Seminar (LEADS) is designed to develop, nurture and sustain a broad and deep pool of capable GFWC leaders well into the future. The program was initiated in 2002 for the purpose of finding, training, and encouraging clubwomen at the grassroots level to step up, pursue and accept leadership opportunities at all levels of Federation.

CRITERIA FOR LEADS PARTICIPATION

A LEADS state candidate should:

- Demonstrate leadership capabilities at the club level as an active club president, club officer, or club project/committee chairman
- Exhibit a commitment to the Federation
- Exhibit an understanding of the GFWC mission of community service, illustrated by programs/projects in which she is/has been involved
- Demonstrate leadership skills, including but not limited to organization, responsibility, trustworthiness, enthusiasm, flexibility
- Exhibit an interest and willingness to pursue higher leadership positions in the Federation
- Agree to share information gained from participation in LEADS with others in the state
- Understand and accept potential expenses involved in participation
- Not have held an elected position at or beyond the state level
- Not have previously been a LEADS candidate

GFWC LEADS is held once a year on the day before the official opening of the GFWC Annual International Convention. It is a full day (8am to 5pm) of activities, including breakfast and lunch. The GFWC LEADS agenda may include:

- Presentations on conflict resolution and mediation; public speaking; time management; parliamentary procedure.
- Explanations of GFWC resources, programs, materials, assistance.
- Discussions on GFWC policies, protocol, parliamentary law.
- Tips and techniques for pursuing leadership opportunities.

GFWC supporting participation in the GFWC LEADS by covering a portion of attendees' expenses, including:

- Round trip travel to and from the GFWC Convention city (2011- Milwaukee, Wisconsin)
- Portion of hotel expenses at official convention hotel.
- Breakfast and lunch during the GFWC LEADS program.
- Discounted Convention meal charges.

GFWC Virginia is responsible for promoting GFWC LEADS, distributing and soliciting applications, establishing a selection process, and selecting one participant to represent GFWC Virginia. GFWC Virginia may be in a position to underwrite a portion of attendee's expenses. However, the participant is
